

Indian Penal Code, 1860

- Extends to whole of India except the state of J&K.
- Every person shall be liable to punishment under this Code and not otherwise for every act or omission contrary to the provisions thereof, of which he shall be guilty within India
- Even a foreigner who enters the Indian territory also submits himself to the operation of Indian laws and he cannot be allowed to plead in defence that he did not know that he was doing wrong, as the act was not an offence in his own country.
- It is a cardinal principle of criminal law that all persons should be treated equal in the eyes of law.
